Re: CGB-CC-0711 - Reply to Opposition to the Petition for Exemption from Closed Captioning Requirements Filed by Trenton Partners, Inc.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

This is in response to the opposition filed on July 3, 2007 by a group of entities collectively referred to as ("Commenters").

The Commenters do not oppose an exemption for Trenton Partners, Inc. ("Trenton Partners") and its program "Poorman's Bikini Beach". In fact, Commenters endorse an exemption for Trenton Partners stating that Trenton Partners has provided evidence supporting a finding of undue burden under the Commission's existing waiver standards.

The only opposition Commenters mount is to request that Trenton Partners be given only a temporary two year exemption. Commenters request to limit Trenton Partners to a temporary two year exemption must be denied because Commenters provide no basis in law or fact for such a temporary issuance. Commenters failed to cite any factually similar situations to Trenton Partners' application which resulted in a temporary two year issuance. Therefore, Trenton Partners must be issued an exemption not limited to temporary status.

Yours very truly,

PICK & BOYDSTON, LLP
